Instructions

Have you read the instructions that we sent to you by email?

NO

YES

Instructions

Please read the instructions carefully.

NEXT

Instructions

How many hams do you have to eat at least to get compensated?

NEXT

Instructions

If you evaluate 10 hams in this study, how much will you be compensated?

NEXT

Instructions

This study will take place over 8 weeks.

As part of this experience, the amount of compensation will be:

- 10 euros for 4 or 5 hams evaluated,
- 15 euros for 6 or 7 hams evaluated,
- 20 euros for 8 or more hams evaluated.

The evaluation of the hams will always be done with the same internet link.

All you have to do is reconnect using it to evaluate a new ham.

You must respect a minimum of 24 hours between each ham evaluated.

The “Next” button will appear after 20 seconds.

NEXT

Instructions

Before each product review, we will ask you to take a photo of the product.

This will constitute proof of purchase.

As a reminder, the ham must be tasted alone without any other accompaniment (without bread, without butter, without anything else).

When evaluating the ham, you will need to describe:

- 1- its visual appearance,
- 2- its texture in the mouth,
- 3- its taste.

Finally, you will give your appreciation of the ham tasted.

The “Next” button will appear after 20 seconds.

NEXT

Instructions

You will have to describe your perception of the product (visual appearance, texture, taste) with your own words.

Fictitious example of the description of the taste of an orange:

"This orange is bloody, a little acidic, very fruity and reminds me a little of my childhood."

You can use terms of texture, appearance, flavors, aromas, etc. as well as emotions or any other sensation. You can also use quantifications (very, a little, a lot, etc.). There is no limit to the length of your answer.

The "Next" button will appear after 20 seconds.
